Subject coverage is diverse and does not create repetition of same subjects. Collectively the class has covered all seniors.
Has opening and closing credits that are visually interesting and entertaining.
Has Music score that has a positive spirit and reflects well of the Senior class.
Music begins and ends appropriately within the slideshow and syncs well with images.
Image quality is superior and all images meet good composition and photography standards.
All images have been prepared in photoshop and student is able to provide original and changed images.
Style choices have been made. If more than one style is used the work demonstrates that the images are divided into "chapters" or segments.
Photo credits appear both on image and in final credits for any image not taken by the slideshow creator.
Transitions are included, the work is a self contained piece, mp4 file and does not contain images of the individual that created it.
