

Understanding Color

With Jazzmin

Color Wheel

Basic

Advanced

Rule of 60-30-10

Dominant color: 60

Secondary: 30

Accent: 10

Color Schemes

WINNER

WINNER

YOU ARE THE 1,000,000th VISITOR

YOU HAVE WON A FREE***
LAPTOP!

CLICK HERE TO CLAIM!

Claim number: 33AF3T

WINNER

WINNER

See offer details

©2006 YourGiftPro.com

WINNER

WINNER

MINION

Sophomore Jarla Evangelista created her own "Minion" costume based off the movie "Despicable Me." The idea came to her last Halloween and she had time to create them. Although it was hot, it took many late nights to finish. "It was a lot of work, but it was fun and it paid off," Evangelista said. By Kimberlee King. Photo by Dignee Galant.

QUITE UNIQUE

Leadership organizes a lunchtime dance battle for students. By Kimberlee King

Senior Savannah Smith, technical theater major, poses in her look-alike dance-off stage dressed as a New York "I don't really care what people think of me" singer in her costume. She was her inspiration. Stage photo by Kimberlee King.

With music playing throughout the school, lunch became its own party, full of dancing and competitions. Senior Savannah Smith won first place in the costume competition, along with senior Christian Petts and junior Morgan Soch who both took second place as Ghost and Mr. Pea-man, respectively. "I make my own costume every year, and this was the fastest costume I made, it only took one day," Soch said. Other competitions included a "Thriller" dance-off and a character dance battle. "It was better unique, but it was funny. I've never seen Peppercorn or an old lady dance battle before," freshman Meghan Allen said.

MOVIE CHARACTERS AND DECADE DRESSERS

A memorable childhood holiday, Halloween, is brought back with many homemade costumes. By Kimberlee King

Posing in character, senior Brian Hollins poses during the "I don't really care what people think of me" stage. He was his inspiration. Stage photo by Kimberlee King.

Halloween, despite it being called a "children's holiday" was still celebrated by students. "I don't like today is a really great opportunity for everyone to connect with their peers and," senior Melissa Gagne said. Once a year, the school became a miniature Halloween town filled with pranks and wishes, movie characters and decade dressers. Many homemade costumes were spotted, showing off their creative creativity. Senior Savannah Smith won the lunchtime costume contest with her own hand-crafted look. "It was intense making it. I had to go into my backyard and cut leaves from bushes, I even had to leave my sister and her boyfriend help me get ready," Smith said. Since the students had November 1 off from school, many were excited for goodie bag trading and late night parties. "Halloween is my favorite holiday, costumes, candy and parties. What's not to love?" junior Jordan Masly said.

HALLOWEEN 17

16 STUDENT LIFE

GROUPING UP

Students partake in group costumes for Halloween. By Kimberlee King

PAC-MAN

Senior Nicholas Beckman and junior Morgan Smith, dressed up as iconic video game characters. "I love Pac-Man," Beckman said. "I was inspired by the game and I wanted to do something that was fun and easy to make. I was inspired by the game and I wanted to do something that was fun and easy to make. I was inspired by the game and I wanted to do something that was fun and easy to make." Photo by Kimberlee King.

I LOVE LUCY

Senior Nicholas Beckman and junior Morgan Smith, dressed up as iconic video game characters. "I love Pac-Man," Beckman said. "I was inspired by the game and I wanted to do something that was fun and easy to make. I was inspired by the game and I wanted to do something that was fun and easy to make." Photo by Kimberlee King.

SENIORS

Senior Nicholas Beckman and junior Morgan Smith, dressed up as iconic video game characters. "I love Pac-Man," Beckman said. "I was inspired by the game and I wanted to do something that was fun and easy to make. I was inspired by the game and I wanted to do something that was fun and easy to make." Photo by Kimberlee King.

BASEBALL

Senior Nicholas Beckman and junior Morgan Smith, dressed up as iconic video game characters. "I love Pac-Man," Beckman said. "I was inspired by the game and I wanted to do something that was fun and easy to make. I was inspired by the game and I wanted to do something that was fun and easy to make." Photo by Kimberlee King.

Grouping up photo by Kimberlee King.

Posing in character, senior Brian Hollins poses during the "I don't really care what people think of me" stage. He was his inspiration. Stage photo by Kimberlee King.

Each class decorated windows in the Food Court with different Disney movie themes.

Even a princess needs to eat. Senior court nominee, Alyson Hervey supported her class restaurant.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

I'm Going All Out

Buzzing with excitement, the senior court shared their testimonies, causing class sponsor Mike Pointer to cry. Students donned capes and cowboy boots, sold breakfast and created restaurants.

The week finished off with a victorious volleyball game against Horizon, a cross country meet, and Talent Show. On Saturday, the boys won their soccer game against Horizon, 8-1.

by Lizette Gill

Coordinating an outfit with friends makes spirit days even better. Mekayla Leitchy, Ashley Joiner and Emily Hayden went so far as to design special shirts.

Normally students prefer to dress down, but not during spirit week. Zach Elliott and Alex Jordan donned suits to become Men In Black, heroes from the popular movie series.

Mid moment Drew Hayden reveals his secret identity.

The King's Speech

Words impact. Stories compel. In a chapel filled with amazing testimonies of God's grace, Brady Holinger's account stood above the rest.

"I was praying for an opportunity to share my testimony since last junior year," explained Holinger, who knew it would be difficult to sell.

Holinger shared about dealing with divorce, his mom's struggle with drugs and committing to Christ in U/S History class. He believes his story of faith swayed the student body to vote for him.

Career Day

Western Day

Super Hero Day

Class T-Shirt Day

you can dance if you want to

The annual Carousel of Roses dinner and dance provides upperclassmen the opportunity to create memories.

by talia richman

For the first three and a half hours of the Carousel of Roses dance, junior Sydney Chris was having the time of her life dancing with her friends.

But when it was time for next year's co-chairs to be announced, Chris felt ready to cry from her nerves.

"...and the first co-chair is... Sydney Chris!"

"I was so surprised and shocked," Chris said. "I'm really excited to plan next year's dance and bond with my fellow co-chairs."

The annual Sadie Hawkins dance, Carousel of Roses, is for upperclassmen only.

Tradition dictates that juniors wear short dresses and seniors wear long dresses.

The dance is planned by four senior co-chairs with the help of the Carousel Committee.

"Planning Carousel was one of the greatest things I've ever experienced," senior co-chair Amanda Brown said. "Even though it was very stressful at times, I loved every second of it. Being able to plan something and then see it all fall into place for one night was a memory I'll never forget."

Unlike Homecoming, Carousel features a sit-down dinner and a father-daughter dance for senior Carousel Committee members.

"I really enjoyed the father-daughter dance," senior Catherine Stack said. "My mom always said my dad was a good dancer, but I never actually believed her - I could hardly keep up."

Senior co-chair Sarah Curran said it was a night to remember. "I wouldn't trade those memories for anything in the world," Curran said.

For junior Sydney Stevens, the evening was one of the highlights of high school.

"If sweat is equivalent to fun, then it was the greatest night I've ever had," junior Sydney Stevens said.

Senior Carson Zerwekh said she'll treasure her experiences at Carousel from both junior and senior year.

"As a junior, it's great to be with your friends," Zerwekh said.

"But it's even more special as a senior because you know it's one of the last times everyone is going to be together."

Rising on the hands of classmates, senior Alberto Gonzalez covered up. Carousel of Roses is Richardson's traditional Sadie Hawkins-style dance where the girls turn the tables by asking the guys to be their dates. "I was scared they would drop me at first," Gonzalez said. "But then I closed my eyes and realized how thankful I am for these great moments with people I'll never forget."

TOP LEFT: Senior Catherine Stack and her date, Ryan Stanton, sway to a slow song on the dance floor. Stack asked Stanton to buy her a matching bow tie and cummerbund to match her pale pink dress. "I had the best time at Carousel!" Stack said. "I got to spend an amazing night with my friends, and it was everything I hoped for." | yates

BOTTOM LEFT: After being announced 2013/2014 Carousel co-chairs, juniors Avery Walks and Alex Wahab gather on the dance floor to collect their ceremonial bouquet of roses from previous senior co-chair Katelyn Eganne. "I felt like Beyoncé at the Super Bowl when they called my name," Wahab said. | burr

TOP MIDDLE: During the traditional father-daughter Carousel Committee dance, senior Sophia Kollaja dances with her dad. "I loved getting to burra a move on the dance floor with my dad at Carousel - he's my favorite dance partner," Kollaja said. "It was an awesome moment that I had been looking forward to since junior year." | dublin

BOTTOM MIDDLE: Standing in the middle of the dance floor, junior Cameron Booty smiles while dancing to the music. "It was fun because the music was good and the food was even better," Booty said. | dublin

TOP RIGHT: Waving his hands in the air, senior Deniz Candas shows off his moves on the dance floor. Candas knew he was going to dance when he walked through the hotel doors. "Aren't rolling and hips swinging. I felt I was at the one place I had to be on earth," Candas said. | yates

BOTTOM RIGHT: Senior Louisa Day wraps her arms around sophomore Tyler Humphreys' neck during a slow dance to Bruno Mars' "Just the Way You Are." "Tyler kept trying to sing the song to me, and I was making fun of him for it," Day said. "But it was actually really cute." | burr

GAMES OF LIFE

Kicking off the season with a win against the best squad of Nevada and a loss against cross town rivals MP helps team and fans learn life lesson

Lorenzo Melvin // Tight end and defensive line Lorenzo Melvin had a total of 24 yards and one sack when the first game of the season.

Sharon Masel // Seniors Ryan Dykstra and Kaylin Gambadoro cheer on the Thunder as a touchdown is scored.

Jose Young // Three 100 yards in the first game and punted Desert Vista ahead by scoring DV first points with a hand off to Jesse Slogers.

// A Team Effort

BARBARA, BERTHIAUME, AND PEREZ/BERNARDI // Seniors left Matt Young (10) defensive back, Brian Carter (10) tight end, and right end Ryan Dykstra (10) defensive back and middle linebacker. Right: Seniors (10) Brian Carter (10) tight end, Ryan Dykstra (10) defensive back and defensive back, Top Left: Matt Young (10) Quarterback, Left: Seniors (10) Brian Carter (10) defensive back and defensive line, and Brian Carter (10) defensive line and defensive line.

Matt Young // "We played pretty sloppy, but due to our talent we made it through. We need some work. With training, we can make it to the finals like last year." -Matt Young, Quarterback

Kickin' It Off

On August 18th, Desert Vista started their season with a win against the Palo Verde Panthers.

Thunder vs Panthers

After winning the State Championship last year, Desert Vista started off the season strongly with a tournament win. The Desert Vista boys brought home 1st place in the 7th annual Sollenberger Classic. According to their coaches, they played well for their first game, with only a few mistakes. Despite the mistakes, the team managed to pull through and score a win for DV!

Hard Work Pays Off // "We know it is going to take a lot of hard work, but with the guys that we have I think we can do it!" said senior two-way lineman Dylan Fischer.

// There is Only Room For One

1. Desert Vista's second game turned out to be one of the most disappointing. DV lost 21-29 against the girls never the less DV fans showed their support and spirit throughout the entire game representing a wall of white for our students.

2. Sharon Masel Junior cheering on the Varsity team.

3. McKenzie Leuchter, Nicole Zygadlo, and Andrea Camacho.

4. Connor Whigman and Kelly Watson.

5. Mickey Meloni, Josh Heckley.

6. Matt Young, Nick Feltus, and Zach Tambora.

7. Matt Young, Nick Feltus, Lorenzo Melvin, and Zach Tambora.

03

Over 13,000 fans gathered into the desert vista stands to cheer on their team in the biggest game of the season.

// This is a quote about life that is insightful to the reader. // Author of the quote

These are the names of the staffers who worked on the page//Page topic

YEAR BOOK STAFF

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Ut sollicitudin, dolor in sagittis tincidunt, sem sapien aliquam odio, eu iaculis odio nibh at mauris. Praesent vitae tellus gravida mi gravida faucibus. Fusce vulputate, nibh ut fringilla ullamcorper, nisi diam volutpat diam, ac tempor turpis lorem et metus. Donec massa nibh, aliquet sit amet convallis nec, ullamcorper at urna. Phasellus felis libero, venenatis nec faucibus a, scelerisque eu enim. In ornare diam vitae metus aliquam volutpat.

Vivamus et purus a mauris faucibus cursus. Praesent gravida iaculis erat, ut dictum libero fermentum non. Nullam sit amet quam lorem. Aenean ipsum velit, placerat vel laoreet et, sollicitudin et orci.

Lorem ipsum dolor sit amet, consectetur adipiscing elit. Ut sollicitudin, dolor in sagittis tincidunt, sem sapien aliquam odio, eu iaculis odio nibh at mauris. Praesent vitae tellus gravida mi gravida

